Chairman's report to the AGM

I start my report on a sad note. As most of you will be aware Muriel Crowston died recently and our condolences go to her relatives, family and particularly her husband, Tom. Up until a year ago they were frequent visitors to events, usually the first to arrive, sometimes before the organiser. In the past they would usually help with Registration and Muriel would wait patiently in the car whilst Tom completed his 'run'.

I want to begin with a couple of important issues I feel the club is currently trying to address or needs to work on over the coming months.

An analysis of the results of almost any event within our region will highlight a major problem that we face as a club. Whilst our membership is fairly constant in terms of numbers, we are distinctly lacking in younger members as competitors. This was a significant factor in our disappointing if not unsurprising, Compass Sport Cup performance at Macclesfield this year. This is not a new problem, even when we got to the final in the recent past we relied to some extent on both exiles and 'ringers'. (Perhaps that was a little unfair if not totally untrue.)

So, what are we doing about it?

This year has seen a continuance of a youth development programme that has centred around the efforts of Mike and Dorothy Smith on the south bank and Mike Cope on the north bank. With the practical, financial and moral assistance of Colin Best, the BOF Regional Development Co-ordinator, they have been into schools organising coaching, setting up local events and providing the expertise that sports co-ordinators require to introduce and maintain our sport in school. All this is under-pinned by an extensive mapping programme of school sites in particular, and in the case of the North Bank, Burton Constable Hall grounds, where it is hoped to run a schools event in the near future. Thanks to persistence and hard work, Mike and Dorothy have secured over £2700 in grants this year for the purchase of SI equipment to enable school events to benefit from this technology in the future. Although the school events have been successful, making the transition to Club and District events has been less so. The ever successful Lincolnshire Poacher series was supplemented at a few events with an additional course, starting earlier in order to attract youngsters from the local schools and area. This was not as popular as hoped but is a start, upon which we can hopefully build. This problem with transition is not a HALO problem alone and is recognised both regionally and nationally. Colin Best was quite radical in his views at the recent YHOA AGM and is basically saying if they won't come to us, we will have to go to them with more local events and fewer District events. It will be interesting to see where we have moved to on this, this time next year.

The second problem is really about involvement of our current members. It is becoming increasingly difficult to put on District and Regional events due to an apparent dwindling number of helpers, not just on the day of the event, but also those who are prepared to take on responsibilities in an official capacity ie. Controllers, Organisers and Planners. We are a small club and this has always been a problem, but is seemingly getting worse. Part of the problem, I am sure, lies with the Committee and we need to look at ways of engaging and supporting members. We may be able to learn a lot from other larger clubs in this and I hope this will be addressed by the club over the next year.

We have had another busy year with our Regional Event at Houghton and District events at Londesborough, Bishop Burton and of course Beverley Westwood contributing to the YHOA calendar. This is the first year in my memory we have had no south-bank district / regional events. The HALO League has been reviewed and after some healthy debate the rules have been agreed by the committee, and together with the points system, published in the newsletter. It may not be perfect, but the committee feel it is the most appropriate system for our club.

It now time to make presentations for the HALO League. Our thanks go to Mike Smith for organising the league this year.

League Winner Fiona Forrest

(See AGM minutes for other awards)

A big 'thank you' to Brian Ward for doing all the calculations on the HALO Championship and I call on him to announce the winner of the The Martin Dearden Trophy.

Club Champion: Dorothy Smith (see AGM minutes for 2nd & 3rd)

Our contribution to orienteering nationally continues to be a significant one. As you are aware the 2006 JK was held in our region and we were asked to organise the starts on the two main competition days at Ikley and Keldy. This required expert organising and Mike Cope did a superb job, ably assisted by as many HALO members as could be mustered over the two days. It was pleasing to see our efforts were recognised in the many items of correspondence that circulated after the event. Our congratulations go to Fiona Forrest for class wins on both Saturday and Sunday, an outstanding achievement.

For the future we have been asked to host the Yvette Baker Trophy which will be held at Normanby Park in 2007.

The Poacher Series continues to go from strength to strength. Many thanks to Pete Kullick and his band of merry planners for making it so successful. Who knows 2007 may see the first SI Poacher. My attendance at Poacher this year was abysmal, but judging by the numbers running my contribution was, as ever, not missed. I will try to do better in 2007. Congratulations to all the winners and to everyone who took part.

The White Rose event takes place over the August Bank Holiday period and EBOR have asked us to pass on some awards to successful HALO members. It seems fitting to do that at the AGM today. (see AGM minutes for details)

I would like to thank all the Committee for their work, all those who have acted as officials at events, all those who have helped during the year in any way, and all of you for turning up today. However, I would like to pick out one or two people, because of their contribution and I must say, help and support they have given to me particularly. Dorothy Smith has been Secretary for as long as I can remember and keeps the Committee and particularly the Chairman on their toes. A heartfelt thanks to Dorothy. John Fulwood has recently taken over the Newsletter Editorship after Brian Ward decided to reduce his commitment to orienteering and the Club. Pete Shew has taken over as webmaster and now looks after our site and Ingrid Slater is currently organising another end of year 'do' – thanks to all of them.

Having just said that Brian is reducing his commitment, I am delighted to see him returning to the fold today and thank him for his continued support as Treasurer and Club Championships Adjudicator! Hopefully we see more of you next season Brian. Mike Cope continues to support the club and the sport with tireless effort and clinical expertise. I thank him particularly for his work with youth development on the North Bank and the support he has given me personally this year.

On behalf of the club I am delighted to announce that Harry and Peggy Milton have been made Honorary Life Members for their many years of loyal service. Planning an event at 79, Harry must hold some sort of record for that feat.

My final act of this piece is to award the HALO Orienteer of the Year trophy. This can either go to someone who has made a particularly significant contribution to the club, or to someone for their orienteering success and is at the discretion of the chairman. The Trophy last year went to Neil Harvatt for his orienteering successes and his outstanding contribution to the club. I have to report that Neil continues to be successful despite advancing years and his contribution to the club remains outstanding for which we are eternally grateful. However, not grateful enough to be awarded it for a second successive year. I do not find making decisions like this particularly easy or with any relish. With so many candidates the thought of upsetting anyone is quite a concern. However, the decision is mine and has to be made irrespective. The HALO Orienteers of the Year are Mike and Dorothy Smith, awarded for their youth development work and contributions to the club in so many different roles - Organiser, Planner, Controller, Secretary, fund-raiser, mapper and committee member to name but a few!

Thanks once again to everyone for being here today and helping to make the last year a successful one for the club.

Editor's (personal) Comment:

I am not sure that the "Club Only Member" being able to compete in HALO only Events is viable in the longer term. British Orienteering intends that all active Orienteers be either Local BOF or National BOF members so they are covered by BOF's civil liability insurance. The club needs to review this Insurance issue if non BOF members compete. The club only member status was intended to cater for social members

If the fee for Primrose for example is £4.00 was taken as an example. The new fee would be £6.60. There would be a discount of £2.00 for HALO Club Only / HALO or any other YHOA Local BOF & National BOF members taking it back to the £4.00. However any LOG Local BOF members would have to pay the £6.60 as they are from another region! This means the Registration team having to check membership status for each competitor, so you need to have your cards with you in 2007. BOF is saying Non Club members would pay the higher fee, or become Local BOF members on the day. This Local BOF membership is free of charge for the first year, and gives the discount. What happens in year two remains to be seen! The question being, is this a good way to attract newcomers to the sport? I'm sure the membership issues will continue. The good news is that the Poacher as a local Event does not incur the new charges.

ELECTRONIC PUNCHING FOR THE POACHER?

ADVANTAGES:

1. Split times available and possibly win splits/browser.
2. Results might be generated more quickly and efficiently.
3. Smaller areas can be used.
4. Prevents competitors taking controls out of order.
5. No control cards needed.
6. No checking of control cards.

DISADVANTAGES:

1. Hiring out of dibbers is time consuming especially as many Poacher competitors will not possess one.
2. Correlation of dibber number with name takes time.
3. Overall result availability for post race analysis on night in doubt.
4. Clear, finish and download need oversight.
5. Any use of a computer on site might require more labour input.
6. Competitors cannot see current overall times as people finish.
7. Control sites must be in ultra safe locations because of extra cost of replacement. (Not normally a problem in most Poacher areas)
8. Unlikely one person can handle all tasks.

CONCLUSION

Any change over to electronic punching in the Poacher Trophy must only be made if the system adopted is simple and able to be handled by one person on the night.

New Corporate Image: A slap on the wrist to the Editor: repeat after me: I must not refer to the British Orienteering Federation. I must not refer to the British Orienteering FederationIn line with new corporate guidelines reference is now made to British Orienteering (BO) not BOF (from page 12 onwards)

Junior Lincolnshire Poacher 2006

We have talked about it for several years. This year we finally made it happen.

6 Events to introduce Juniors and parents to orienteering.

We had a good well-planned project. The groundwork had been done in that at least 20 Primary Schools and some Secondary Schools in the area had received Orienteering Maps of their grounds and most of these had sent a representative to Introductory Courses organised by Colin Best. We were supported by the Caistor Schools Sports Partnership Coordinator. The schools were informed and the Events advertised on our web-site [subsequently JLP had its own link too.]

So was it successful?

Yes, in that the project gave us a reason to apply for funding to various bodies.

Both Lincolnshire County Council and the Sports Lottery Fund thought we were worth supporting and their £2,600.00 was gratefully received and enabled the Club to purchase 23 SI units plus stakes and mounting plates, a mini printer and 20 dibbers. HALO was also committed to put £500 towards expenses which included map production and surveys and organisers expenses.

The SI equipment is clearly a good investment for the future of HALO

In terms of participation we have been disappointed. However to be positive, those who attended enjoyed themselves, learnt some new skills and have all said they'd like to come again next year. We do hope that there will have been greater input by the schools in time for next spring and that our efforts to increase Junior participation will be more successful.

Thank you to Mark and Pete S who helped us at some of the events.

Dorothy & Mike

A grovelling apology: You may have noticed the boundary around the title page text box showing the Poacher winners in August's Edition. Well, below the boundary was :

SUPERVETS CHAMPION - PADDY NELIGAN.

Sorry Paddy I didn't check the final document enough - perhaps I need a Controller !! JF

Still with Paddy: Great North Run 12th October:

Well done to Paddy & Chris Neligan for completing the 2006 Great North Run.

Lakes 5 Days - 2006

A fine week of Orienteering with two off days to allow the old bodies some respite. The weather was remarkably dry, and not too much rain previously meant that bogs were generally runnable. The organisation was to its usual high standard, but having the finish each day well away from the assembly areas meant the atmosphere was rather flat. Nevertheless a good week's competition. The highlight of the week had to be the HALO dinner in Windermere with authentic South & East African food. Thanks to Ingrid for arranging.

Day 1 : Swindale S.E.

Welcome to the Lakes with a technically tricky area near Shap. The terrain was 50/50 marsh & hilly open fell with numerous crags and boulders. One or two minor streams, but no line features. The marsh was very runnable, but the navigation had to be precise. The M65S battle was joined with Mark Tyska 2nd & Pete Kullich 3rd 1 min behind. Jake & Zac Field were 3rd on M10A & 4th on M12A respectively. The M55L honours went to Brian Slater with John Fulwood just pipping Paddy Neligan

Day 2: A completely different area - Graythwaite North.

Described by the planner, (in an understatement), as being physically & technically challenging. Heavily contoured forest & hard going underfoot meant times were very long. Well done to Fiona Forrest in finishing 5th in W21L in 113 mins – the winner being 82 mins. Pete exacted some revenge over Mark on M65S by coming 4th. Brian repeated his first day lead ahead of Paddy & John with Brian's 131mins reflecting the general slow times.

Day 3: Angle Tarn:

Open fell above Patterdale. Very runnable with one or two footpaths & walls. The 1.3Km & 190m climb to the start was too challenging for one or two who decided the club tent needed supervising in the very strong winds! Best result in points was Zac Field 3rd in M12A. Mark 2nd on M65S edged ahead of Pete in 4th with good 7th places for Fiona in W21L & Roseanne Field in W40S. John claimed the HALO leading M55L spot 11secs ahead of Paddy.

Day 4: Bannisdale East:

Open fell again between Bannisdale & Borrowdale, this time without any line features at all. Tricky positioning of Controls and difficulty in relocating caused significant lost time for quite a number of competitors. Jake & Zac achieved a double coming first in M10A & M12A respectively. Roseanne improved again coming 4th on W40S. John Butler produced his best result of the week, 5th in M60S, as did Neil Harvatt 12th in M50L. The M65S battle had Pete in 5th with Mark just behind in 6th. The M55Ls maintained their mediocre showing with Paddy leading them home in 59th position 5 mins ahead of Brian with John bringing up the rear.

Day 5 Hampsfell:

A totally different experience with significant areas of Limestone Pavement, both in woods, and in open grassy fell. Quite tricky in the woods and although the open areas should have been easier, some mistakes were made. The controls near the end returned to woods, with a number of people thrashing around in the wrong re-entrants. Mark had a superb run to gain 2nd - 10mins ahead of Pete in 4th, but was it enough for victory for the week? Next best result of the day was Team Sue Chaney !!!! 8th in W60S (cont'd)

The Long Hard Road

When I was in serious training for the 1988 London Marathon my greatest source of inspiration was the Ron Hill book "The Long Hard Road". This title seems so apt as I now attempt an Orienteering come-back. Amanda and Charlotte both wanted to get back "into" Orienteering, and so I thought – why not? I've been out of the sport (competitively) for the best part of two and a half years (at least), apart from one or two minor forays (Compass Sport Cup Final last year being one) picking up the map and compass in search of those little square orange and white things(!).

It's very difficult, not mentally, that side is well refreshed, but physically I'm struggling. My aerobic capacity is still good – upwards of two hours a day on a bike keeps you in reasonable trim, but it's not running – is it! This is where the problem arises. My leg muscles seem well and truly trained for pedalling in small circles at a great rate of knots now, and won't work properly when I try to put one foot in front of the other quickly – i.e. attempt (for that's what it is!) to run.

So, I think it's going to take a while, but no rush, I have a cunning plan – where have I heard that before? My immediate aims are –

- 1 – To be able to run for an hour comfortably – this could take longer than anticipated – presently managing a 30 minute shuffle 2 or 3 times a week!
- 2 – "run" (ha!) Green at District Events and M45 Short - as of January 1st (yippee!) at Regional Events if we get to any (as long as they are fairly local it shouldn't be a problem).

Medium Term goals include –

- 1 – Once comfortable with Green, move on to Blue then Brown at District Events (more of a Long Term aim)
- 2 – M45 Long – I would REALLY like to run this at the J.K. – we are THINKING about going, but more realistic may be my initial thought of getting to M45 Long in time for the White Rose next August!

I am also seriously considering Night-O, but am still in search of a Headlight – it really sharpens up your technique which is something I need to work on.

I intend to start getting more involved again with planning and controlling – again these are good technique work, making you THINK about Orienteering rather than just going out on a course and trying to blast round (not that I'm ANYWHERE near to being able to do that..... for a while, anyway!).

Next progress report in the Christmas HALO News – don't miss it!!

Brian Ward.

CLARO District Event, Harlow Hill - 24th September

A small area, using a 1:5,000 map for White and Yellow, and a 1:7,500 map for the remainder (to Blue) didn't detract from the amount of variety in the terrain. Being my first event in almost a year I opted, after discussion from my coach (thanks Charlotte) to plump for Green at 4.7 km with 105 metres climb. I'm really pleased that the norm is now for pre-marked maps even at low-key events such as this, I can remember on a few occasions having a run spoiled by miss-marking controls at the master-maps – and even, on occasions, completely missing the last control off for the second master-maps therefore having to wait to be caught then follow someone in to them!

The Harlow Hill map has a fair amount of "green" of either solid or lined varieties – it's still a bit early in the "O" season to venture too far from path routes – bracken and bramble still impede progress, in general until about the end of November if memory serves me correctly! A good track and fairly complicated path network compensated for the above, with my course having two road runs – out to, and back from, a steep and rocky, wooded slope. There was a good mixture of techniques to be tested – most of mine still rusty, but the signs were quite encouraging in places, only spoilt by 2 legs in particular – where "no plan" syndrome was to blame for the first and "that didn't quite go according to plan" failure for the second.

What I found absolutely fascinating in the results were the SplitsBrower pages. I haven't had cause to really study them for a while – and everything is there for you – your leg time and position, your cumulative time and position after each leg, your time behind the fastest person on your course for that particular leg, and fastest overall for that leg regardless of course (if you want to be really humiliated!).

With both Amanda and Charlotte both keen to do lots more orienteering, Charlotte in particular looking forward to some big events where she might be able to par-take of a Wilfs(!) I think I might be making a come-back.

Look out world , here I come!

NOC District Event, Blidworth- Sunday 1st October

Two weeks running – this is becoming a habit! Blidworth Woods near Mansfield was the venue for our second Orienteering outing. It has been a while since I have been to Blidworth – in fact records show the last visit was 4th February 2001 for a Badge (now Regional) event. Persuaded by my coach (thanks Charlotte!) to up the ante I “ran” Blue.

An inauspicious start – the ride leading to the first control was totally buried by brashings, at least it couldn't get any worse – or could it? Well, undergrowth is always going to be a problem at this time of year, and, true to form, most of the rough open areas were indeed, rough! The other lottery was the runnable woodland – actually it was o.k. once you wrestled through the overgrown vegetation at the edge of the tracks. What I don't really like is the excessive use of barely existent vegetation boundaries as control features, and we had a few of these! Other than these minor gripes, for that's all they really were, the area gave surprisingly good sport despite the rather “green” nature of the map.

My 6.0km / 150 metres climb passed in a respectable 52:51 – o.k. the winner literally flew round in 42:35 – but I guess that MUST be local knowledge, or is it that I'm just no-where near as quick as I use to be?! – probably!! The technical difficulty offered was of a good standard, requiring thought of route choice, attack point and careful navigation near the circle, I'm starting to get the hang of this sport again! Roll on next week!!

SEXY VIDEO SHOCK

King Edward was lounging on his couch absolutely steaming. In fact he was boiling mad having watched the video

http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=_X3_zvWXodQ

The Queen was mashing her teeth having just finished dancing the croquette with the dauphinois.

This video should come with an obscenely healthy warning the king exclaimed. If I get hold of the producer I'll have him for chips!!

A web-site worth looking at:

Try <http://maprunner.org.uk>

A website created & maintained by Helen & Simon Errington

It has various articles on orienteering and links to other websites.

There is also a sheet of IOF control descriptions with equivalent map symbols in colour and in various downloadable formats (incl. tree stump, ant hill etc) An illustration of part of the sheet is shown below. The left hand column is the pictorial description you might get. The remainder, the map symbol & written description.

Further charts show what is meant in the other columns on the pictorial control description sheets.

2007 CompassSport Cup/Trophy

The First Round date has been fixed at 18th March: keep a note in your next year's diary!!!

Venues closest to us are : SYO - Tankersley Sheffield - (to be confirmed) I guess for YHOA region. and LOG - Stapleford Woods.

No formal info has been received so it depends where the grouping of small clubs will take place. More info in the next Newsletter

Neither venue is too far, so I hope HALO can get a good turnout.

Colour Coded Badges - District Events

The scheme is operational in all of the British Orienteering Federations regions, these are the details for the Yorkshire & Humberside Orienteering Association scheme only.

The scheme is administered by Dorothy Smith

To qualify for a 'White' Badge, you need to complete 3 White Courses. It does not matter how long you take, as long as the course is completed.

For all other colours - Yellow, Orange, Red, Light Green, Green, Blue and Brown, you have to complete 3 courses and finish above the "Colour Line" within a two-year period.

The other "Colours" you may sometimes (but very rarely) encounter are Purple - a longer version of Orange / Red and VERY occasionally Black - a longer course than Brown, and almost exclusive to technical areas such as The Lakes, Scotland and Wales.

To claim your Badge send an S.A.E. to Dorothy Smith at 111a Westgate, Belton, Doncaster, DN9 1PY.

Please include the following information - Event venue, date, course, winner's time, your time.

YHOA GALLOPEN 2006 after 7 results

Points from the seven events so far are now calculated. The best six results are counted. It was hoped that the competition would run over 11 events taking the best 6 but as one event was cancelled and another was downgraded to a district event, it will now be 6 out of 9.

The next counting event will be the EPOC one on 29 October. Hopefully some of those lower down the tables with less than six counting events can move up by running in the last two events.

Any queries to mike.cope@ukgateway.net
