Poacher Week Four....

Many thanks to planner David Jolly for last week's event at Ten Acre Wood, Osgoodby. If you got scratched by brambles, spare a thought for David, who had to take a pair of secateurs with him whilst planning.

Pete Harris has the details from last week on the HALO website. This week Helena Crutchley plans at Twigmoor, apparently no brambles, but there could be midges!

EBOR Dalby Forest YBT Heat.....

Well done and thank you to all the HALO Juniors who ran on Sunday. That's Luke, George, Marsaili, Jacob, Emma, Elspeth, Poppy and Flora.

Dalby is a beautiful but tough area, so it was hard going for both juniors and seniors. The top HALO finishers across all the courses were, Helena Crutchley 16th on the blue, Paul Simmons 8th on the green, John Butler 5th on the short green, George Van Dam 2nd on the light green, Emma Van Dam 3rd on the orange and Flora Jolly 8th on the yellow. The Yvette Baker Trophy heat was won by EBOR, results here.

Events this week.....

Wednesday, HALO Lincolnshire Poacher, Twigmoor

Thursday, LOG Spring Series, Riseholme Park.

Saturday, SYO Urban Sprints, Poderosa Sheffield.

Sunday, EPOC Park Sprints, Huddersfield.

Sunday, NATO, Regional event, Rothbury.

Bank Holiday Monday, NOC, Nottingham Urban.

@LOGGERSLATEST.....

Paul Murgatroyd and Liam Harrington continue their weekly head-to-head battle. The scoreline is now, Paul 3 Poacher wins, Liam 3 LOG Spring Series wins.

Coincidence.....?

In the last ten days The Times concise crosswords have had the clues, "circle of light" "direction finder" and "run with aid of map and compass"

The answers to which were, Halo, Compass and Orienteer. Plus we had skyblue
