

Pub League Finale.....

The HALO Pub League ended last Wednesday night at Bransholme. Thanks to Mary Carrick for planning a great score and line event. Half the runners managed to get all 20 controls, so many smiling faces. Brian Ward won on the night, taking maximum points across six events. You can read Brian Slater's race report on the HALO website, where he spells gastroenteritis correctly..... Over the series we had two straight score events, two score and sprint events, a decades in a downpour event and a straight sprint. A big thank you to all who ran, planned, organised, collected etc.....

Weekend Results.....

The only local event was at Pocklington on Saturday. EBOR offered four courses of varying length. Mike Byron ran all of them, finishing first on three and fifth on course A. Other HALO attendees were Brian Ward 2nd course A, followed by Paul Van Dam 3rd, Paul Beresford 8th and Ken Hutson 11th. On the B course Paul Simmons was 8th, Jackie Edwards 10th, Amanda Ward 15th, Kate Gymer 27th and Patricia Simmons 31st.

Poacher Contenders.....

With only a week to go until the Poacher 2019 begins it's time to make some widely inaccurate predictions for this year's event. On the long course Liam and Paul have dominated, but this year I expect Ben Mather (also LOG) Dean Field, Joe Field and David Jolly to mix things up a bit. On the medium course the Smith's dominance of last year could be tested by parenthood, and will anyone be dropping down from the long, or coming up from the short course to contend? Elspeth Jolly must be favourite for another trophy. Anyway, it all starts next week at Primrose Warren.
